Alpine Ski Team Announced for 2019 Canada Winter Games

January 5, 2019

Fredericton - Ski NB, the Provincial Sport Organization for Alpine Canada Alpin, held its derby on January 2-3, 2019 at Mont Farlagne in Edmundston to select the 2019 Canada Games Alpine Ski Team.

The derby was held with 20 female and 17 male athletes competing. The athletes raced multiple races in 2 disciplines, Slalom and Giant Slalom, to narrow the team to the top 7 athletes per gender.

"I am once again thrilled to lead New Brunswick's alpine skiers and support staff into the Canada Winter Games. Their effort, perseverance, and results during the selection trials was a culmination of many years of practice. They are well prepared to compete against the rest of Canada's young ski racers in Alberta and I have no doubt they will make our province proud!" - Ian Banks, SkiNB Canada Games Head Coach. Ian Banks led the team as head coach for the 2015 Canada Games as well.

Athletes and coaching staff represent all three clubs in New Brunswick. The Alpine Team is comprised of 7 males and 7 females and one para athlete:
